Engins volants

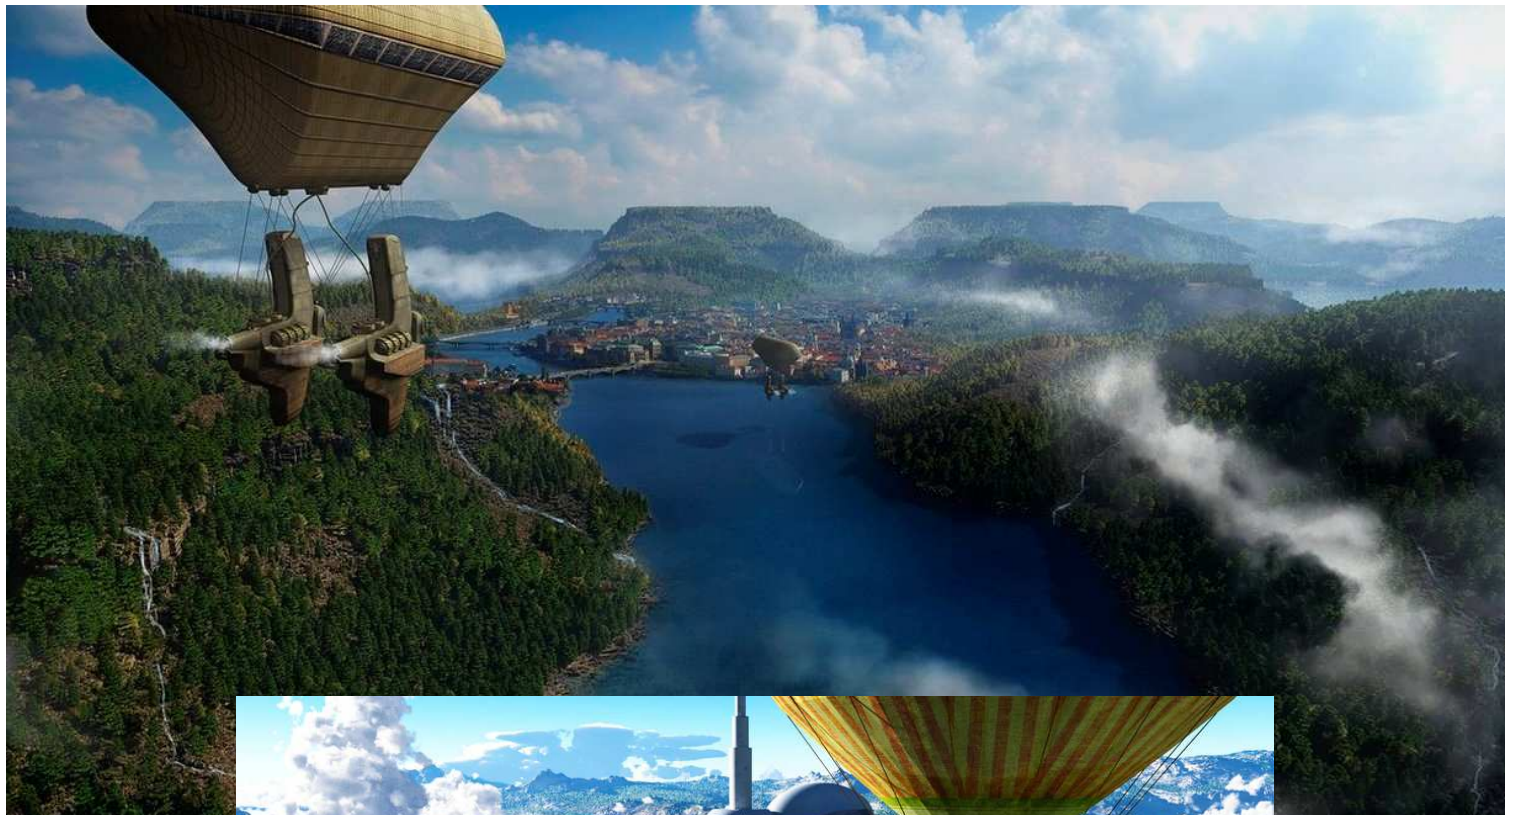

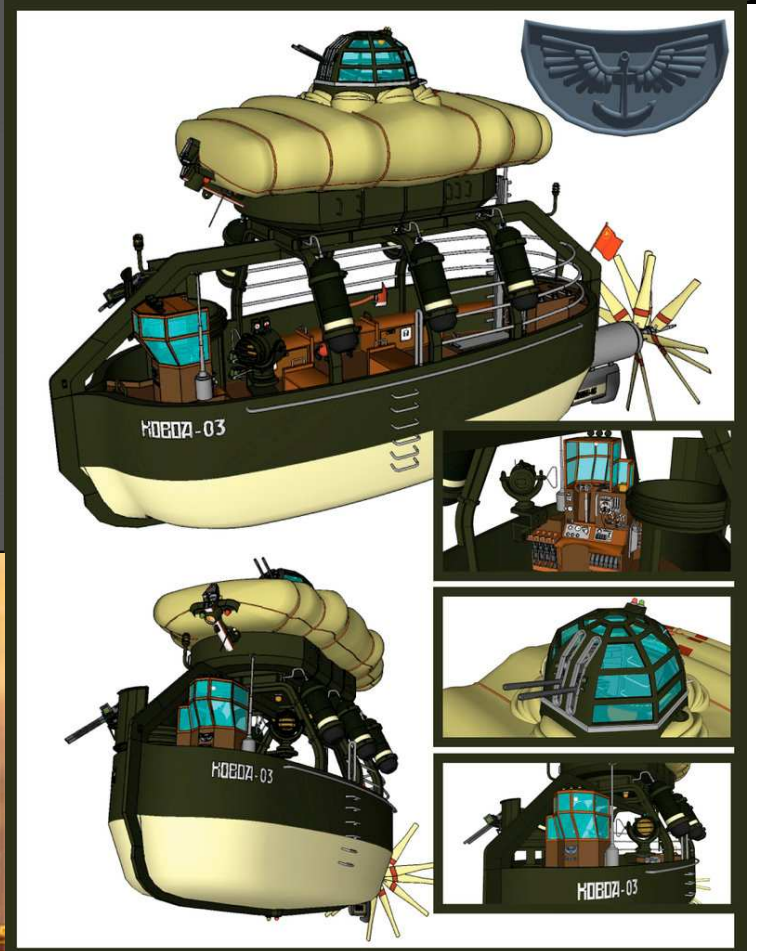

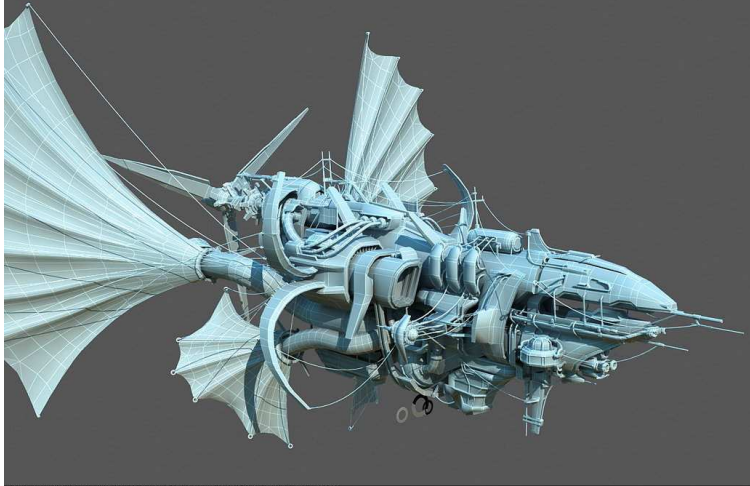

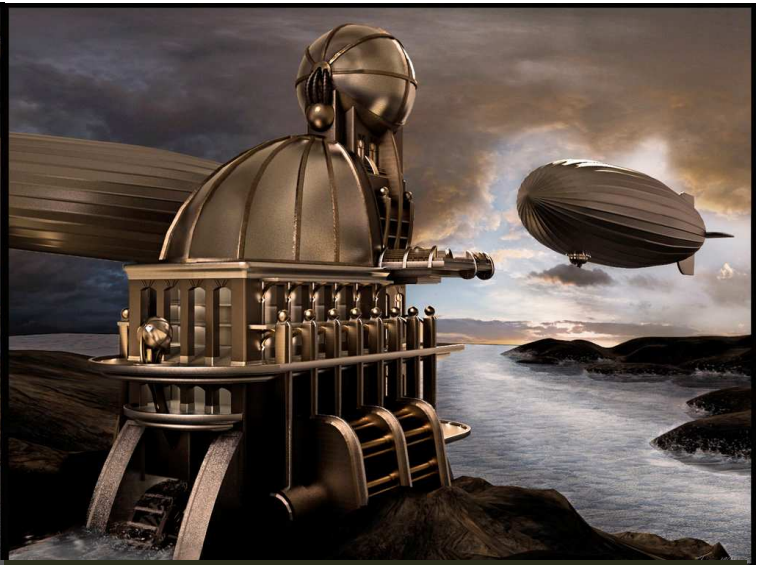

(c) 2009 Mathieu Noel

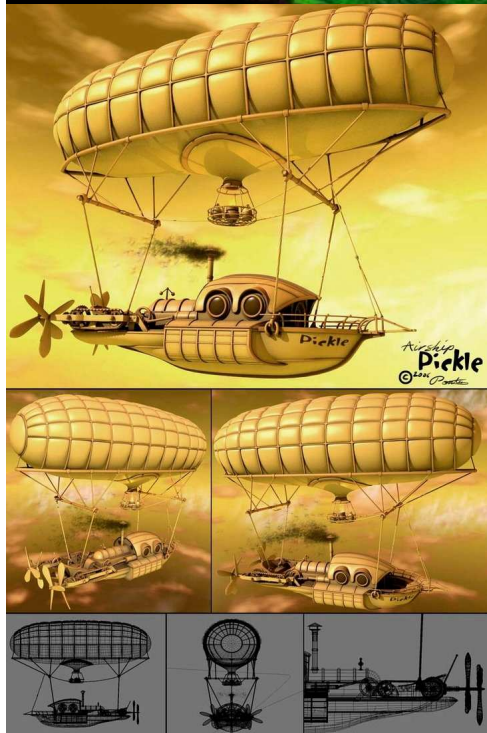

A part quelques dirigeables marchands de Britanie et de Solarenz, tous les engins volants sont aux mains de la police de la tour blanche, et pilotés par des gezpos expérimentés.

Objets de la LOGE

Etonnement, on peut, plus facilement qu'ailleurs, trouver des pièces de machines gouluz à Shamazantha, car il en traînent par ci par là dans les décombres des souterrains de l'astéroïde... de plus il y en a aussi cachés dans Luzine, et bien sûr plein dans la tour blanche !

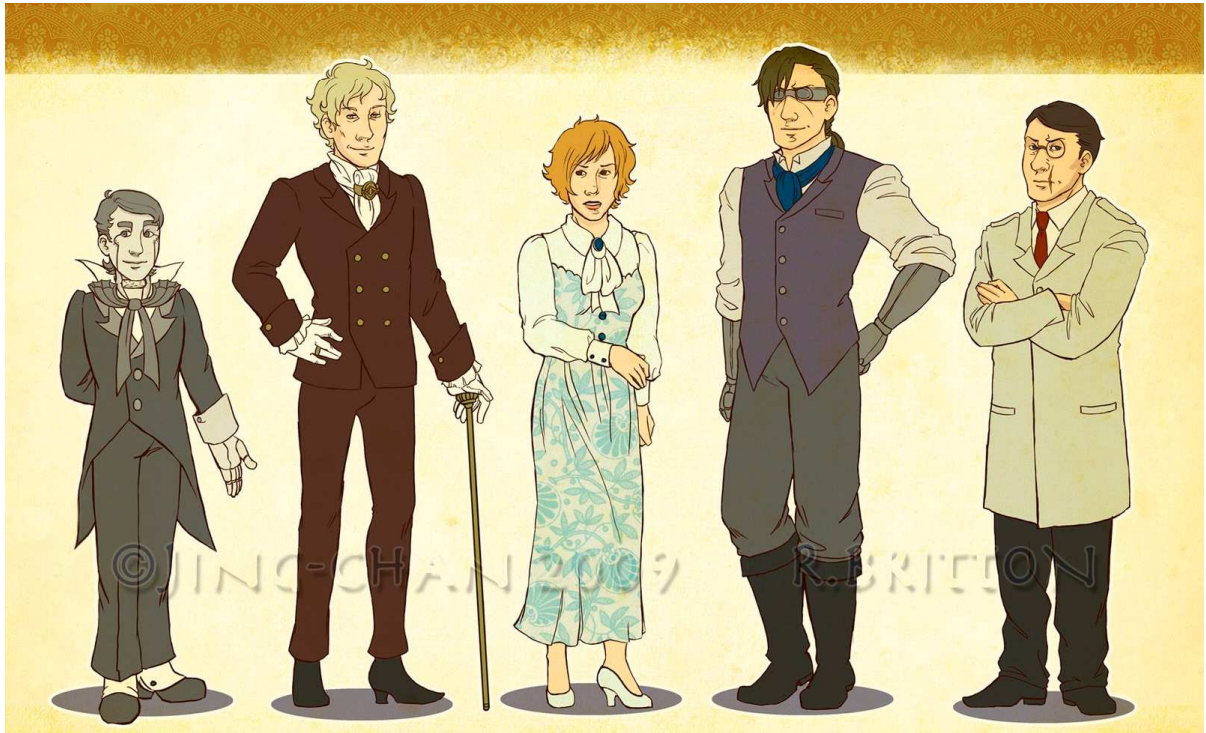

Cette abondance et ce laisser-aller s'explique par le désintéret du Dandy pour la chose scientifique, à ses yeux ces pièces détachées n'ont pas grand intérêt : en effet, peut on la particularité des objets de la Loge d'empêcher les pouvoirs surnaturels (environ 2%), aussi il ne s'en était pas inquiété comme d'une possibilité de rébellion à ses pouvoirs.

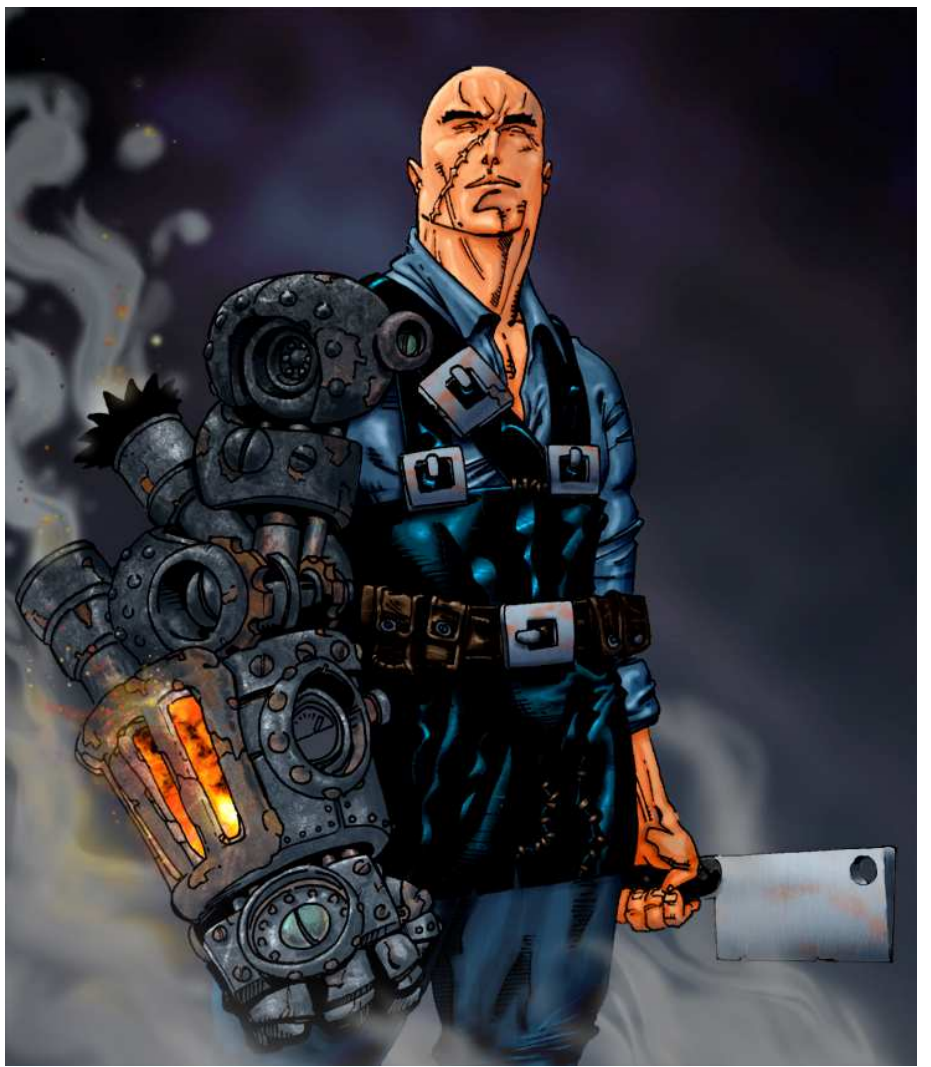

Cette faculté de ces éléments de technologie gouluz semble donc postérieure à l'époque dont Charistolphe s'est enfui de l'empire gouluz...

Même sans ces pouvoirs anti-surnaturel, certains mécanismes ont quand même des facultés intéressantes, comme d'annuler la gravité, d'emprisonner dans un champ de force, de tirer un rayon paralysant, ou d'autres fonctions plus bizarres encore...
